

BROKERS WEEKLY

December 26, 2012

HAVE YOU HEARD ...

AGENTS from downtown brokerage Platinum Properties carved up their Christmas winnings to donate to local businesses.

Proceeds from the company's holiday 50/50 raffle, were donated to the Alliance for Downtown New York's Back to Business Small Business Grant Program.

The program provides aid to small businesses of lower Manhattan that suffered great setbacks due to Superstorm Sandy.

Grants are awarded to qualifying small businesses below Chambers Street that are located within Flood Zone A.

Khashy Eyn, CEO of Platinum Properties, who lives downtown, said, "The small businesses that were hit hard by the storm are our neighbors and our community, and there is no better cause for our contribution."